

The Glorious Fourth.

The glorious Fourth passed off Friday, on the whole quite decently. There was altogether too many explosives on the street, but otherwise not much complaint could be made. The Moose band picnic was the attraction of the day. A large crowd was present to participate in the festivities, enjoy the music and mop sweat. A pleasing feature of the afternoon and evening was the music furnished by the Moose band. This band under the leadership of Capt. F. A. Day is rapidly coming to the front and gives promise of rounding out in a first class musical organization. The picnic was given under their management and much praise is due them for the admirable manner in which it was conducted.

Some excitement in town was produced by the bicycle races in which prizes were offered by John Morrison & Sons. The motorcycle race was won by Henry Fox in one hour and fifty-eight minutes; Albert Snell was second. This race was over a course of 52 miles. In the senior bicycle race 3.4 miles, Herman Ruebel won in 12½ minutes. The junior race was won by Bert Harber.

The Christian Sunday School picnic held out on the bluff afforded a great deal of pleasure to the young and near young. The offering of fried chicken and the many other good things to eat was a delight to the soul as well as the stomach. It is reported that it took Jas. McGrew's six cylinder car to transport our friend Sydney back to town. After the chicken and ham bones had been shared away, the five works began. These were extensive and thoroughly enjoyed by the old and young.

The ball games on the Academy grounds were both placed in the winning columns of the Lexington Cubs. The first game with the Summit Mine team resulted in a 10 to 2 victory for the Cubs. The second game with the Higginsville team was another walkover and 11 to 0 was the final score.

Indiana-to-Pacific.

About twenty cars of the Indiana-to-Pacific tour of Indiana automobile manufacturers passed through here Saturday afternoon on their way to the Pacific coast. Several local cars met the party at Dover and acted as escort to Lexington. Only a few of the cars stopped here. The party Sundayed in Kansas City.

Oscar Andreen writes us from Stockholm, that he is dining daily with the King. He says it is full daylight there at 2 o'clock in the morning. How distressing that would be to some of our Lexington friends.

Promotion for Worth Bates.

Worth Bates, who for the past several years has been in charge of the office of the local Gas & Electric Light Company, has been called to the home office in Chicago. He left Tuesday night to take up his new duties.

If ever a man has won promotion Mr. Bates has done so. His untiring industry, his unfailing courtesy and good nature combined with unquestionable honesty made him a most valuable man to the company. He leaves here with the best wishes of a host of friends, and no doubt of everyone ever having business with that office during his incumbency.

Mrs. Fannie M. Summers has been chosen to succeed Mr. Bates in the Lexington office.

Music and Expression Recital.

Miss Roff Hays of St. Louis, 1st secretary of the Y. C. B., who is now giving a week of recitals in Kansas City, will under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. give a recital in music and expression Monday evening, July 14, in the chapel of the Lexington Ladies College of Lexington. Miss Hays is exceptionally fine and everybody should avail themselves of hearing her. Admission 15 cents.

Sunday morning Miss Hayes will sing at the First Baptist Church, Sunday evening at 7 o'clock in the Tent Airdome she will address the young men and women of Lexington, at eight o'clock she will sing at the union services.

Death of Patrick O'Malley.

Patrick O'Malley, a former citizen of Lexington, died at 5 o'clock Thursday morning at his home in St. Louis. His death was due to old age and general debility.

Mr. O'Malley was born in Ireland, and was 82 years old. He came to Lexington in 1856, and resided here until about two years ago, when he moved to St. Louis.

He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Mary O'Connor and Misses Anna, Delia and Katherine O'Malley of St. Louis, and James O'Malley of Lexington. Mr. O'Malley was highly respected by all who knew him.

The body arrived this morning and was taken to the Catholic church, where the funeral services were held.

Jos. L. Long Sells Grocery.

Jos. L. Long Friday disposed of his grocery business, corner of Franklin and 16th, to D. T. Bogie. Possession was given immediately. Mr. Bogie is well and favorably known in Lexington, where for a number of years he was the proprietor of the Lexington Bottling works. He, no doubt, will conduct a first class grocery store and enjoy a large trade.

Death of Mrs. Mary C. Hoge.

Mrs. Mary Calhoun Hoge died Wednesday night at 8:20 o'clock at the home of her son, Col. Wm. M. Hoge, Wentworth Military Academy. Her death was due to old age. She died suddenly and peacefully—merely like one falling asleep.

Mrs. Hoge was born in Dayton, Ohio, April 1832, and was 81 years and 3 months old. For the past two years she had been making her home with her son, Col. Wm. M. Hoge, where her declining years were made happy and care free by the tender nursing of Mr. and Mrs. Hoge.

No funeral arrangements have been announced.

Look Who's Here.

We have been very fortunate in securing as our press agent the great Hoosier writer, Bill Simpkins, from Cross Timbers, Posey county, Hoopole township, Ind. We are sure his quaint writings will be very interesting, as his hobby is hard-ware and things pertaining thereto. But remember, if he should become stale, he is subject to recall, fine and imprisonment. The Model Hardware stands sponsor and is responsible for all copyrighted articles written by Bill Simpkins.

Miss Nell Marrs, who has been visiting in Okene, Okla., and Miss Anna Marrs, who has been visiting in Kansas City, returned home Tuesday evening.
